

First STEM Symposium at Sri Venkateshwar International

Sri Venkateshwar International School, Sector-18, Dwarka, hosted India's 1st STEM (Science Technology Engineering Maths) Symposium. Present at the occasion was, Dr. Y N Krishnamoorthy, Scientific Secretary ISRO, Directors of Education and Health, Anju Mehta and Ajay Nangia, Sailander Solanki, School Chairman and Principal, Nita Arora. During the event, an all India Science

Projects competition titled 'Vigyaan' was also conducted that allowed the students to showcase their teamwork skills through working models. The event culminated with prize distribution ceremony where, the first Prize in the senior category was bagged by Jaycees Public School, Rudrapur, while the first prize in the junior category was won by the team from KIIT School, Pitampura.